

Notice of NSPII Award Nominations

Nominations for the following awards are being accepted. The deadline for submission of nominations is the end of August.

The following awards are available:

F. Lee Brininger Award

NSPII has annually recognized a person or persons who have made an outstanding contribution to the fight against insurance fraud. Prior to 1993, the award was called the Investigator of the Year Award. Starting in 1993, the award was renamed to honor F. Lee Brininger, who was recently deceased. Mr. Brininger was instrumental in founding NSPII, and served as its first President and from 1985 to 1993 as Executive Secretary. Also, in 1993, the Board of Directors specified their intent that this award go to an investigator who had "demonstrated skill, dedication, and honesty in fighting insurance fraud."

Public Service Award

The Public Service Award is to be given to a member of the public sector for "professionalism, dedication, and accomplishment in the fight against fraudulent insurance claims and/or arson."

Outstanding Achievement Award

The Outstanding Achievement Award is to be given to a Society member for "outstanding achievement in the fight against fraudulent insurance claims."

Nominations should be submitted on the appropriate Award Nomination form.
